Dear Dr. Irfan Syamsuddin, PhD

It is my great pleasure to inform you that your paper is accepted and will be published on the International Journal of Electrical and Computer Engineering (IJECE), a Scopus indexed journal. Congratulations!
Please prepare your final paper and follow the guide at: http://www.iaesjournal.com/online/index.php/IJECE/about/editorialPolicies#custom-3

This journal is an OPEN ACCES. Why publish open access? IAES open access authors benefit from: Quality, established and reputable journal, reaching key audiences' with 5 million users per month, high citations, etc. Benefits of the OPEN ACCESS policy:
- Researchers as authors: immediate visibility for research output and thus increased visibility and usage of their results. Open Access may even lead to an increase of impact.
- Researchers looking for information: access to literature everywhere, not only from a campus but also from any site with wifi access.
- Funding agencies: increased return on investment (ROI), increased visibility.
- Universities & research institutes: greater visibility, clearer management information.
- Libraries: increased access for target audience, financially a more attractive model than the current subscription model.
- Teachers & students: unrestricted access to material, enriched education, allowing equality of learning in poor as well as in rich nations.
- Science: enhanced and accellerated research cycle.
- Citizens & society: access to knowledge / access to the results of publicly funded research.
- Enterprises: access to critical information.
- Publishers: transparent business model, ultimate online article distribution, ultimate visibility for articles.

So, Open access fee is paid by the authors, or on their behalf to support the cost of wide open access dissemination of research results, to pay deposit to CrossRef in order to each published articles has a Digital Object Identifier (DOI), to manage the various costs associated with handling and editing of the submitted manuscripts, and the Journal management and publication in general.

Dear Editor,

Regarding my submission to IJECE, please find two attachment files.

First file is my submission to IJECE which is the extended version of my EECSI 2014 paper (IJECE-irfan.doc).

Second file is my EECSI 2014 paper in order to ease you identify the difference between both papers.(353-443-1-SM.pdf)

I really hope the paper can meet the requirements to get published in IJECE journal.

Your kind advice will be very appreciated.

Thank you very much

Best regards,
